

SCORES OF CHILDREN MET DEATH IN FIRE IN PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

PEABODY, MASS., INSTITUTION WAS SWEEPED BY FLAMES
THIS MORNING.

NO FIRE ESCAPE ON BUILDING

Panic Ensues When Alarm Is Sounded—Cause of Fire a Mystery.

(Associated Press)
Peabody, Mass., Oct. 28.—At 11
o'clock this morning twenty bodies
had been recovered from the ruins of St. John's parochial school.

Peabody, Mass., Oct. 28.—Fire
swept through the three story brick building of St. John's parochial school
early this morning burning or driving to death in the panic that followed the alarm of fire, probably thirty
of the 600 boys and girls who but a few minutes before had assembled for their lessons.

An hour later twelve bodies had been removed from the vestibule
where the jam of little ones had resulted in the greatest loss of life. The police early estimated the dead at fifty, and many were injured. Some of the children jumped from the third floor windows.

Started To March Out.

The children's ages ranged from seven to thirteen years. They were in charge of sixteen Sisters who mar-
shalled their charges for the fire drill
and started them from the building
when the alarm was given.

The procession was orderly until
those on the third floor joined those
pouring from the second floor rooms.
Suddenly there was a cry of fear and it was taken up by others. A panic ensued. A large percentage of the pupils were of foreign parentage.

The flames are supposed to have
started in the basement, and according to some reports, were started by the explosion of a steam boiler. The firemen fought the fire from ladders
raised to the windows.

The theory of an exploded boiler
was disproved later, however, when an investigation of the ruins showed the steam boiler intact. The cause of the fire is therefore a mystery.

Many Acts of Heroism.

When the location of the fire became known hundreds of distracted mothers rushed to the place but were
held back from the burning building
by the police.

There were no fire escapes outside
the building, which made it necessary
for the children to jump from the windows or seek escape by the interior stairways. There were many acts of heroism. March Harris, aged 10,
carried his one-legged chum, aged 8,
through the smoke choked stairways
to safety.

Other bodies are still within the ruins, and it is thought the total
dead or fatally injured will easily reach twenty-five. The twenty bodies which have been recovered were trightfully burned. The Mother Superior saved twenty-five children by dropping them from a window into blankets.

STATE IS INSPECTING CROSSING CULVERTS

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION DIRECTING "SAFETY FIRST"
MOVEMENT

Paul R. McCann, assistant engineer
of the state public utilities commission, is visiting several cities
throughout the northern part of the state making a survey of reported dangerous railroad crossings as well as culverts along the highways
that are a menace to life. He was in Freeport on Monday looking over Illinois Central and St. Paul grade and overhead crossings. In speaking of his visit at Freeport the Bulletin
of that city has the following to say:

It is a safety first movement, Mr.
McCann explained, and it is the purpose of the commission to correct
dangerous conditions before casualties result. Bridges and culverts
that were safe for travel ten years ago may not be safe now, owing to
the increased use of automobiles,
and it is necessary that the life and
property of those using the highways be safeguarded.

Big Knife Used In Melee At Dance In Lee Center Saturday

Lee Stewart Badly Cut By A Fellow Named Campfield
Saturday Eve

As the result of a mix-up at the
dance last Saturday night at the Amu Cardott place in the northeast part of Lee Center township near the Bradford line one of the participants received several deep gashes on the arms as well as one on the breast and had to be taken to the office of a physician at West Brooklyn to have his injuries dressed.

Lee Stewart and a man by the name of Campfield became involved
in an altercation and it is claimed that Campfield drew a knife and made several passes at Stewart with it. The men were separated as soon as possible but not until after Stewart had received a number of cuts. After the trouble, Campfield is said to have made a hurried departure and has not been seen since.

Lee Stewart, the man who was attacked came to Dixon today to consult with States Attorney Harry Edwards, and it is likely that a warrant will be sworn out for the arrest of Campfield. Stewart has two deep cuts on the head, one on the left side between the ribs and one on the arm. According to his statement he was dancing with a young lady when Campfield told him he would like to see him outside the dance hall and later met him outside
the hall, when the latter attacked
him with a jack knife. The knife
was found the following day near
the scene of the struggle. Stewart
has been working on the Fred Schaffer farm, while Campfield has been working for George Dillow.

CRUDE GAME TRIED ON DIXON MERCHANT

STRANGER, UNABLE TO WRITE,
TRIED TO HAVE HERSAM
CASH CHECK.

HAD BOUGHT BILL OF GOODS

A man giving the name of Michael Harris and claiming residence on a farm about five miles southwest of this city, created a sensation in De-mentown Wednesday forenoon when he made some large purchases of merchandise and farm machinery of J. H. Hersam, promising to send for the goods in a day or so. After the order had been booked Harris asked
Mr. Hersam if it would be possible
for him to cash a $1.50 check for him
as he had run out of ready cash. Mr.
Hersam informed him that he was not
running a bank but as an accommodation he would do that much for
him. The stranger asked for a blank
check on the First National bank and on being told that there was no First National in the city he said he meant
the City National. He asked Mr. Her-sam to fill out the check for him as he could not write and after filling it
in he placed his mark upon it and Mr. Hersam signed his name as a witness to the mark.

Thinking that the actions of the
man were rather strange, before giving him the money Mr. Hersam stepped across the street and telephoned
to the City National bank to inquire
if a man by the name of Michael Harris had an account there and he received the reply that he did not. Mr.
Hersam kept the check and telephoned
the officers of the affair but the man
made his getaway before the officers arrived, and inasmuch as no
money had been paid on the check it would have been hard to prefer any charge against him.

GOVERNMENT APPEALS STEELCASE

Files Petition To Carry Proceedings
to Federal Supreme Court

(Associated Press)
New York, Oct. 28.—The government has filed a petition for an appeal to the federal supreme court in the case against the United States Steel Corporation, which was recently dismissed in the district court.
The government seeks the dissolution of the corporation.

THREE MORE STATES WILL BALLOT ON SUFFRAGE FOR WOMEN ON NOVEMBER 2.

(Disappointed, but not disheartened by the result of the New Jersey election, suffrage workers in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and New York redoubled their efforts to win the right of franchise. In each of the three states the vital issue will be fought out by ballot on Nov. 2. In New York state the suffragists will make their most heroic battle. Herewith is shown the suffrage map of the United States as it now stands. The states in white have given equal suffrage. In those in black men only can vote. Three other states will decide on it in November.)

BEEN ASKED TO ACCEPT
POSITION

Shel Varna, Doing Much Damage To Town—Serbs Retake Uskup
Is Report

(Associated Press)
Paris, Oct. 28.—The Vivanti ministry has resigned. Former Premier Bryand, at present Minister of Justice, has been asked to form a new cabinet.

WAR SUMMARY.

The Bulgarian troops are driving at Nish, capital of Serbia. They have captured the strongly fortified town Pi-
rot, thirty-five miles east of Nish.
Says a Saloniki dispatch to the London Mail.

British Cruiser Aground.

The British cruiser Argyle, 11,000
tons displacement, ran aground this morning off the east coast of Scotland
and because of bad weather may be a total loss.

Gains In Serbia.

Berlin reports further gains in Serbia for the Austro-German and Bulgarians. The Bulgarians, the report says, have crossed the Timok and have captured Srebrenica and Kulajevat on the railroad from Negotin to Nish, against which the Bulgars are marching.

The Bulgarians have also occupied
the heights fifteen miles northwest of Pirot, capturing several guns, the report says. Since Saturday Gen. Gal-
lenz has captured 2,900 Serbs.

Hear Serbs Take City.

London has unconfirmed reports
that the Serbians have retaken Uskup.
The French claim advances in the Strumitza region and the reported
recapture of Velez from the Bulgars
seems confirmed.

Russ Bombard Varna.

Bucharest says the Russians at 4
o'clock yesterday morning began a bombardment of Varna, one of the two principal Black Sea ports of Bulgaria. The shelling was still continuing at 11 o'clock and considerable damage had been done the city.

On Other Fronts.

The Italians claim their offensive movement is progressing. No important changes are reported on the German-Franco front.

SUFFRAGE HAS MADE GREAT GAIN IN STATE

REPORTS AT STATE CONVEN-TION SHOW TWO HUNDRED
TWO SOCIETIES

WOMAN'S INFLUENCE IS TOLD

(The Associated Press)
Peoria, Ill., Oct. 28.—Sixty-seven
organizations joined the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association in the year just closed according to a report on "Organization," to the convention of the association here today by Mrs. E. L. Stewart of Chicago. She said in part:

"When the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association met in this room two years ago, we represented only 81
affiliated organizations. During the year just closed 67 new organizations have been added to the list.
Today we come together representing two hundred and two different groups of women from all over the state, affiliated with each other as State Association.

"Where a large number of women
have voted in a town or city,
wherever good men have been elected and good measures passed by the women's vote, there has invariably been found in that town some permanent group of women working.
The reverse is equally true. Where-ever there has been a failure of the wet and dry campaign or other moral issues, wherever a small number of women voted, in that town has never been found any permanent organization.

Body In Every Town

"The work of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association will never be finished until there is a permanent
active organization in every town

REPORT OF BOARD PROVES F-4 SIEVE AS CAPT. CHARGED

NAVAL INQUIRY SHOWS WHY U.
S. S. SUBMARINE WENT
TO BOTTOM

TELLS OF HEROISM OF CREW

Men Stayed At Post And Abored To Make Faulty Boat
Come Up

(Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 27.—A graphic
story of the battle for life waged in vain 300 feet beneath the surface of the sea by the 21 men who perished in the navy's submarine F-4 last March
at Honolulu is told in the final report
day. Examination of the wrecked hull
on the loss of the vessel submitted
by a board of inquiry headed by Rear Admiral Busch and made public to-
after it had been brought to the surface and placed in drydock convinced
the board that the disaster was caused by a leak resulting from a corrupted battery lining, and the failure
of the boat through poor diving qualities to promptly respond to the ruder
change which should have returned her to the surface.

Discarding the theory once advanced
that chlorine gas brought quick relief in death to the crew, the board
from signs within the rusted and battered hull pieces out in its report a dramatic account of how the doomed
men strove desperately to save themselves as their vessel sank to the bottom. Fifteen men met death in the engine room where they sought refuge at the last, and six died at their

HELD CHAUFFEURS' EXAMINATION

State Officials Conducted Tests In Freeport This Week

An examination for applicants of chauffeurs' licenses from the northern counties of the state was held at Freeport on Tuesday and Wednesday by Benjamin Cochran and D. W.
Leslie of the Secretary of State's office. Last week they were at Rock Island where two hundred applicants were examined. There were fifty arrests in that county for non-compliance with this law. Persons applying for chauffeurs' license are
those who are defined as any person
operating a motor vehicle as a mechanic or employee for hire. The annual license fee is $5, with $3 for renewal each year.

City National Bank Notes Stolen In B.O. Train Robbery Oct. 8

Word Received From Treasury
Dept. Says Package
Is Missing

The City National bank received
word this morning from the Commercial National bank of Washington, D.
C., that a package of incomplete currency, which is paper money that has not been signed by the officers of the bank, had been mailed to the Dixon
bank on Oct. 7, but that on October 8th the Baltimore & Ohio train No.
1 was held up by bandits who escaped
with several packages of money, including a considerable sum, and including the money belonging to the City National bank at Dixon. The money was insured. If it is not recovered, it can be passed by the robbers after they have forged the names of the officers
of the bank to the paper notes.

mittee of the Dixon lodge B. P. O.
Elks is making further arrangements

other dancing party have been added

more numbers are under consideration for the late winter, and as soon
as dates are definitely determined
they will be announced.

WOMAN FRIGHTENED TO DEATH IN AUTO

MRS. HERBERT BROOKS OF ER-IE, VICTIM OF FEAR AT ROCK FALLS

(Special to the Telegraph)

Sterling, Ill., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Herbert Brooks of Erie, aged 50, was frightened to death in Rock Falls
Wednesday evening when two automobiles, in one of which she was riding, collided on West Second street.

As the impending collision became apparent, Mrs. Brooks screamed and lapsed into unconsciousness. She was taken to a physician's office
where she revived, but at 7:30
o'clock, two hours after the accident,
as she was being taken to the George Jennings home, she passed away.
Death was due to nervous prostration, caused by fright and affecting the heart.

VALIDITY OF TICE ROAD LAW WAS NOT TOUCHED BY COURT

COOK CO. CASE DECIDED—BONDS
THERE HELD TO BE INVALID.

DIXON'S ARE PROBABLY 'O K'

Majority of All Votes Cast Favored Dixon Bonds—Did Not In Cook County.

Dixon highway commissioners, the
attorneys of the city and all good roads enthusiasts are interested in a decision handed down by the Illinois
supreme court before adjournment
Wednesday in a case carried to it
from Cook county concerning the issue of bonds for road improvements
under the Tice law.

The supreme court held that the bonds issued in Cook county were invalid, but in rendering their decision
they held the bonds void on a condition which did not exist in the Dixon question. The court held that the bonds issued in Cook county were not valid because they did not receive the favorable ballots of a majority of all the voters in the election. They received a majority of all who voted on the bond question, but that was not a majority of all the voters who participated in the election.

Majority Right in Dixon.

At last spring's township election
bonds for the pavement of the Lincoln Highway from the east line of Dixon township to the east city limits
and from the west city limits to the west township line, were authorized,
and a majority of the voters also favored bonds for paving the Hazelwood road to the epileptic colony. In each case a majority of all votes cast
at the election was in favor of the bonds; the total vote in the township
being 1622, of which 1008 favored
the Lincoln highway bond and 1158
favored the Hazelwood road bonds.

Bankers Uncertain.

Fearing the Tice road law, under which the election was held and the improvements were to be made, might be declared unconstitutional, or at least the provision of the law for voting bonds for road work might be declared void, bond houses have been backward about bidding for the bonds
—$85,000 worth of them, which Dix-
on township voters have authorized.

May Remove Uncertainty.

While local attorneys are not positive the case decided by the supreme court Wednesday removes all uncertainties concerning the bonds, it is
the general opinion that the decision
of the court will satisfy the bond
houses and that the local bonds will now find a ready sale, inasmuch as the constitutionality of the Tice law
was not shaken by the court.

DIXON FREE FROM CONTAGIOUS DISEASE

STATE HEALTH REPORT SHOWS
CITY IN BETTER CONDITION THAN MANY.

According to the report recently issued by the state health department Dixon is one of the cleanest towns in the state so far as contagion is concerned. There is not a case of contagious disease in the city at present,
while in many places there have been
and it has been necessary to close the
schools and establish quarantine
rules. It is hoped the city may pass through the winter with as good a record, and in order to do this it behooves all to exercise care and if any contagious cases arise to assist in keeping them out as quickly as possible.

BONFIRES DAMAGE PAVEMENTS

Citizens Are Asked to Refrain From Practice This Fall.

In many parts of the city people in cleaning leaves from their lawns have been raking them into the street and burning them. In instances where they have been raked on the brick pavement the fire has damaged the asphalt used as a filler between the bricks. In time this will make a bad
place in the pavement and on account
of this citizens are asked to refrain from burning leaves on either brick
pavement or concrete streets.

WATER.

Water was first discovered and investigated by Noah, who succeeded in living on it for forty days.

Most men admire Noah for his bravery, but very few have any desire to break his record.

Water is one of our most useful and necessary possessions. Without it the earth would be a desert and worthless, stocks would only yield a beggarly six or eight per cent, and mankind would curl up and die. A great many men avoid water and try to get along with a substitute which they claim is just as good. But their widows and creditors seldom speak of the experiment as a success.

There is a most unlimited supply of water on the planet, but most of it is badly seasoned and is unfit for drinking purposes. There are five great oceans containing 150,000,000 square miles of water and surrounded by 200,000 miles of sea beach, giving room for 2,000,000,000 bathes at one time. And yet a great many people in this world are no cleaner than they should be.

Water is very thin and transparent except in the Chicago and Missouri rivers. It is very restless and is continually climbing up into the sky and falling down on baseball games and picnics in the summer, and on new millinery in all seasons. Water is very gregarious, and loves to collect in ponds, rivers, lakes, gulfs, oceans and corporations. It is very unstable, and the man who tries to wander around in it without a life preserver soon sinks and dies from swallowing too much of it. Too much water is just as fatal as too little.

Water is useful for running steam engines, making soft drinks, soaking soiled citizens, increasing the supply of milk, putting out fires, making Baptists and insulating Americans from kings and dukes and Waldorf Astors. Among the great noted collections of water in the world are the Great Lakes, which are 1,000 miles long over all and entirely drinkable; the Mississippi river, the father of waters; the Amazon river, the greatest female river in the world, the Great Salt Lake, the Dead Sea and Wall Street. Niagara Falls and the Old Faithful geyser are the two most athletic bodies of water. The most industrious water is the Colorado river, which has burrowed its way 6,000 feet into the ribs of the earth. The most imposed upon water is the Chicago river, which was turned around, loaded full of sewage and made to run backward. The most restless river is the Missouri river, which changes its bed every night. The most neglected water is found in Kentucky, where it is used for anything but storing catfish. And the most over-advertised water in the world is Minnehaha Falls, which only falls when a stout man in overalls turns on a spigot and begins to pump.

Water is very thin and transparent except in the Chicago and Missouri rivers. It is very restless and is continually climbing up into the sky and falling down on baseball games and picnics in the summer, and on new

HERE'S NEW VIGOR FOR OVERWORKED STOMACHS

Rowland Bros., the popular druggists, have been in the drug business long enough to have their own opinion on the best way of selling medicines. They say the plan adopted by Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy, is the fairest they have ever heard of. They don't believe that a medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. And Mi-o-na is sold under a positive guarantee to relieve dyspepsia or to refund the money. You simply leave 50 cents on deposit with Rowland Bros. and if you have used the box of Mi-o-na you decide that it has done you no good, all you have to do is to tell them so and they will refund your money.

Hundreds of people have been relieved of stomach agonies by using this remarkable remedy. It is not simply a food digester; it is a medicine that puts all of the digestive organs into normal condition and gives rudely glowing, vigorous health. A change for the better will be seen after the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon give the power to eat anything at any time and not suffer distress afterward. Use Mi-o-na and see how much good there is in it.

Where, Oh Where

We have scanned the daily papers for about a month or more; we've read of divers happenings—we've read about the war.* We've read each paper through and through until our eyes are sore—but we can't find T. R. It is very mysterious what's happened to that man! A quiet Ted is stranger than a noiseless baseball fan! We'd thank you for the knowledge, so tell us if you can—where is our friend, T. R.?

There are dozens of our statesmen who are making lots of noise; some who criticize the methods that our friend Wilhelm employs. Others wall 'bout the immunity that old John Bull enjoys, but—silence from T. R. Each paper's full of comment on our beloved president—the ladies think that Mrs. Galt is sure! heaven-sent, and Woodrow's one-track-mind just now is on mere pleasure bent—still no word from T. R. Conditions 'cross the Rio Grande grow worse and worse each day; some papers claim that Villa's dead—he lives the others say. Some people have the nerve to state that kids are in the way—strange silence from T. R. We read about Bill Bryan's fight against the Demon Rum—he talks and talks until you hope that he'll be stricken dumb! In spite of this who is it that keeps strictly mum 'Tis none but our T. R.

If the papers do not quote his pretty soon, we'll go insane, for such unheard of silence puts a kink in our poor brain. We don't care WHAT he says just so he says it loud and plain!—Say SOMETHING, Please T. R.

*Making "war" rhyme with "more" and "sore" is not according to poetic Hoyle. However, need the reader be assured of what is obvious, i. e., the above is not poetry? MAC.

Four Men in a Boat

Jimmie Jerome or some fellow of similar name, once wrote a novel and he called it "Three Men in a Boat." It was a humorous novel and caused its readers to tee-hee most enjoyably; but Jimmie had nothing on Bob Stratton Charles Keenan, Chet Whitebread or Urban O'Malley if they would only take the time to write their experiences in Stratton's boat Wednesday afternoon. But when they ran out of gasoline six miles up the river and had to hike it back through the jungles, they lost all their good nature, and

and hamlet of Illinois. It is immaterial whether it is a civic league, a woman's club, a church federation, or an improvement association of men and women, as long as they are working to better conditions in their own community, and through affiliation with the State association, working to make Illinois the best state in the Union.

"The franchise has meant to women greater opportunity to improve the condition of her home, and to surround her children with better influences. Even more, it has meant a more direct influence in protecting the helpless and unfortunate. If the women of Illinois will hold this ideal and not let desire for gain or person at ambition or even party ambition creep in, there is nothing that the women, working with the men, holding the same ideal, cannot accomplish. To the women of this country has been given the opportunity of creating a new civic conscience."

FOUND SKELETON ON HARRINGTON'S FARM

BONES OF INDIAN FOUND IN OLD TRIBES' BURYING GROUND.

Wednesday while excavating on the Eugene Harrington farm up the river Arthur Travis exhumed the skull and other bones of an Indian, who doubtless was a member of a tribe of Redskins which inhabited this locality in early days. Many of the Indian tribes under old Chief Black Hawk had their camping grounds near the banks of Rock river and certain tracts of land were set apart as burial grounds for their dead. From the number of skeletons that have been found at different times on and in the vicinity of the Harrington farm it is the supposition that it must have been used as a burial ground. The skull was found in a fair state of preservation, though most of the teeth had dropped from the jaw. No Indian relics were found with the skull.

Master Clinton Crews of North Dixon entertained a company of little folk Monday afternoon in honor of his fifth birthday. Twelve were seated at the table which was decorated in orange and black, with the usual birthday cake and candles surrounded by oak leaves as a centerpiece. The favors and place cards were also in keeping with Halloween.

With Miss Florschuetz.
The members of St. Paul's choir and their friends were entertained last evening in a delightful Halloween party given by Miss Henrietta Florschuetz.

Draped in sheets and masked in pillow cases, the ghostly guests arrived and were conducted through the mystic lower regions and up into the cold night air of the out of doors, around the neighborhood, and back into the Florschuetz home again where they were allowed to mount higher into the more ethereal regions, the upper floor and the attic. Having passed through all sorts of tribulation on the way, they were at last allowed to come back to earth, where they found all sorts of Halloween amusements, games and contests awaiting them. A fortune teller in gypsy costume was there, also, awaiting only the crossing of her palm with gold to divulge to them secrets of the past, present, and future.

A Halloween luncheon, with all the usual Halloween goodies, was served at the close of the evening, from the dining table, which was decorated in orange crepe paper, streamers reaching from side to side and crossing in the center where rested a huge jack-o-lantern.

Entertained in Sterling

Miss Mabel Drew of Palmyra and Miss Helena Murphy of this city were entertained at 6 o'clock dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lenora Gooch in Sterling.

Ideal Club

Mrs. L. W. Miller was hostess Wednesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Ideal club. The program carried out proved very delightful. "The Flower of the Dusk," one of Myrtle Reed's books, was most interestingly reviewed by Miss Carrie Smith. The "Cradle Song," and "Melody in F," by Rubenstein, was beautifully rendered on the piano by Erman Miller, son of the hostess, who was accompanied at the piano by his mother. Mrs. Henry Leydig conducted the giving of current events. The program was followed by a social hour and the serving of a luncheon.

The luncheon, with a New England menu, was served on a table beautifully adorned in bitter-sweet and Halloween decorations. White candles in apple holders at each place. A three course luncheon, with such good things as pumpkin pie, made individually, was served.

Mrs. Blake Grover will entertain the club at its next session.

Hold Card Party

The Mystic Workers will hold a card party at Miller's hall on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock sharp to which all are invited to attend. Being Halloween night the hall will be decorated in keeping with the occasion and a good time is assured all who attend.

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy. Inexpensive but Unequaled.

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 54 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easy to prepare and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent phlegm cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs. To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

At School of Instruction

A delegation of seventeen, consisting of Mrs. Harvey Sennett, orator, Mrs. Buelah Platten, Mrs. Manahan, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mrs. Chronister, Mrs. Mark Smith, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Edous, Mrs. Gaulrapp, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. John Origiesen, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Ella Hedley, Mrs. Samuel Mail and Barney Bush, attended the School of Instruction of the 13th District for the Royal Neighbor lodge in Rock Falls Wednesday. They report a most enjoyable meeting with large delegations from the thirty-two camps in the district present.

The morning session, opening at 10:30, was largely taken up with the introduction of the supreme state officers: Supreme State Super visiting Deputy, Mrs. Dell Newton of Peoria and Supreme State Physician Dr. Franc Morrill of Chicago and the District deputies, Mrs. Johanna Reynolds of DeKalb and Mrs. Linzean of Moline. The supreme state officers, Mrs. Newton and Dr. Morrill, were exceedingly interesting women of charming personality, whom the members of the district felt it a great pleasure and inspiration to meet. The welcoming address was given by Mrs. McCavitt, one of the managers of the Rock Falls camp and the response was given by Mrs. Reiger of the Sterling camp.

Dinner was served at noon by the ladies of the Rock Falls Methodist church in the church dining room and was a most delicious roast chicken dinner. The afternoon session, with an attendance of several hundred delegates, was given over to the work of the school of instruction presided over by Mrs. Newton, and to a short literary and musical program.

Mrs. Brown of Sterling gave a vocal solo, a reading, "The Queen Mrs. Burd Joins the Woodmen" was given by Mrs. McCavitt of Rock Falls and Mrs. Philb of Rock Falls rendered another vocal solo. The work for the afternoon was put on by the Sterling camp, which was highly complimented by Mrs. Newton.

Election of officers for the ensuing year was also held in the afternoon, and resulted in Mrs. Lind of Rochelle being chosen president of the district. Mrs. Harvey Sennett of this city as the vice president, and Mrs. Langdon of Peoria as the secretary. Rochelle was given the school of instruction for the coming year.

The Rock Falls camp provided the excellent supper which was served in the Methodist church. The enthusiasm of the evening session was dampened by the death of Mrs. Brown of Erie, one of the delegates attending the school. Early in the evening she witnessed an automobile accident, and it is believed that fear that a lady injured was a friend of hers, brought about an attack of heart trouble that caused her death. The drill was put on again by the Sterling camp, the regular initiatory drills being supplemented by several fancy drills.

Surprised on Birthday

Mrs. Theresa Monahan was pleasantly surprised last evening when a group of friends, upon the invitation of her daughters, gathered at her home. A pleasant evening was spent at cards and delectable supper was served. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Monahan.

The house was beautifully decorated with Halloween emblems, with jack-o-lanterns adding a merry touch. The sixteen guests present enjoyed the evening at progressive euchre, with Mrs. John Hetler winning the ladies' head prize, John Bradley, the gentlemen's and Mr. prize. Mrs. Monahan received a number of pretty gifts.

BLOCK HOUSE WAS A FAMOUS PLACE.

The wish of the Daughters of the American Revolution to perpetuate the memory of the old Block House shows commendable civic pride, for such a place would be a great asset to Dixon. They appealed to the legislature for an appropriation to purchase old Fort Massacre, on the Ohio river, the oldest fort in the west and one that has been under four flags: Spanish, French, British and the Stars and Stripes. The legislature granted the request and the Daughters erected a splendid granite shaft among the few old stones that mark the ruins of the foundation, and they are custodians of the ten-acre park that surrounds the place. Fort Armstrong Chapter has also marked the site of Fort Armstrong on Rock Island, which was established in 1805 and was the focal point of military operations during the Black Hawk war. The organization also presented the staff and flag which adorns Starved Rock.

The local chapter of the D. A. R. also presented the bronze tablet which is located on Peoria avenue, just north of First street, on the west side, and which marks the spot of Father Dixon's cabin, bought in 1830 from a half breed, Ogee.

It still remains for the people of Dixon, Lee county and Illinois to mark in some suitable manner this most historic spot—one that occupied such an important part in the history of the frontier days when this valley was a wilderness.

An earthwork was constructed on the north side of the river and the block house was built in the northeast part. The fort was to be a protection from Indians from west of the Mississippi, who had crossed the river into Illinois and were threatening trouble. In 1832 Gov. Reynolds requested General Gaines to expel the Indians from this state. The regular troops were mobilized by General Atkinson, who appeared at the rendezvous with about 300 regulars. Col. Zachary Taylor was Colonel of the regulars and Lieut. Jefferson Davis was a member of his staff.

Abraham Lincoln was elected Captain of a company of volunteers from Sangamon county, and they marched overland to Dixon (then Dixon's Ferry) and reached here May 12, 1832, when they were mustered into the U. S. service.

Lieutenant Robert Anderson, later the hero of Fort Sumter, mustered them in. The march in pursuit of Indians led the soldiers to Ottawa, and finding but few Indians the volunteers became dissatisfied and Governor Reynolds mustered them out on May 27th and 28th. A force in the field was essential until a new levy could be raised and a few men were patriotic enough to offer their services. Miss Tarbell says they were mustered in at the mouth of the Fox river (or Ottawa), by Lieutenant Anderson. Among these men were Captain Lincoln. They formed an independent company of rangers and served under Captain Iles. This company was held in reserve and was ordered to Rock River and reported to Col. Taylor, who was at the block house at Dixon's Ferry. The men camped at a spring about a half a mile up the river, on which is now known as the old Van Ormen place. This company was organized for 20 days' service, which expired in June. On June 20th, Lincoln was mustered in again by Lieutenant Anderson as a member of an independent company of mounted rangers, under Captain Jacob M. Early. This company saw perhaps the hardest service of the campaign, for it was allotted scouting duty. On July 10, three weeks before the last battle at Bad Axe, the company of which Lincoln was a member disbanded at Whitewater, Wis., near the headwaters of Rock River, and Lincoln returned to New Salem.

There is no question but Lincoln was twice sworn into the United States service at Dixon. That he took part in the Black Hawk war in 1832, though of short duration, was the beginning of his public career. So closely is he connected with the early history of Dixon that it is highly desirable and fitting that an enduring monument should embellish the Lincoln Highway at this point in his memory.

This spot on the Lincoln Highway is on the route followed by the old mail route between Peoria and Galena, over which Father Dixon had the contract for carrying the mail.

Thwaites locates the trail as a coach road, known as Kellogg's Trail, opened in 1827, connecting Peoria with Galena and the lead mines, which was largely traveled. The route it followed is described by the points of interest it touched, which were mainly lonely cabins at long intervals, representing the population of the northern part of the state at that time. They were: "Old Man" at Kellogg's Grove, Winter on Apple River, John Dixon, on Rock River; "Dad Joe" at Dad Joe's Grove, Henry Thomas on West Bureau Creek and Chas. S. Boyed at Boyed's Grove.

A few of the prominent men who were at Dixon's Ferry and the block house fort in 1832 were: Col. Zachary Taylor, who later became President of the U. S.; Lieutenant Robert Anderson, later hero of Fort Sumter; Abraham Lincoln, later to take his place in history as the martyred War President; General Harney, who became noted for his activities in the Mexican war, and Jefferson Davis, a lieutenant on Col. Taylor's staff, who later became President of the Southern Confederacy.

Is it not worth while to make a note of these things in a public way and build a monument where all can see and remember? Tourists on the Lincoln Highway, the Black Hawk Trail, the Douglas Trail, etc., etc., would appreciate it. The old fort had to do with Lincoln and the Black Hawk war and it is fitting that the people of Dixon show their appreciation of the ownership of these old landmarks.

BABIES AND SCIENCE.

They say that white dresses for babies are bad for the eyesight. Science is always discovering something new about babies. Science would do better to devote itself to sun spots, the biology of plant life and a discussion of the timely topic as to the probable inhabitation of the stars. Then perhaps babies would have a chance to take up their normal growth where it was supposed to cut off by science some twenty years ago. A baby does not want himself pasteurized and sterilized and all that. Up to a certain age he wants kisses and milk. After that he wants more kisses and mud pies. Then he wants soldiers and stone bruises and kisses when the other fellows are not looking. He can do and have all these things in the most unscientific fashion and still

JOE CAMPBELL PUT ON TRIAL AT JOLIET

NEGRO TRUSTY'S CASE CALLED IN WILL CO. CIRCUIT COURT.

MIS ALLEN MURDERED JUNE 20

Effort Made By Murderer To Turn Her Body After Crime Failed.

(Associated Press)

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 28.—Joe Campbell, "Chicken Joe," was placed on trial here today for the murder of Mrs. Edmund M. Allen, wife of the warden of the Illinois state penitentiary, who was found murdered in her bed in the warden's suite of the prison between 5 and 6 a. m. June 20, 1915. Her skull was crushed in and her body burned. Fire by which the slayer evidently sought to destroy evidences of the crime led to its discovery.

Joseph Campbell, better known as "Chicken Joe," a negro trusty, an honor man favored by the warden and his wife, was immediately arrested, and his conflicting stories led the authorities to formally charge him with the crime.

Campbell, who was serving a term of from one year to life for the killing of Henry Stephens, a negro janitor, in Chicago Nov. 10, 1913, was said to be the last man to have seen the murdered woman alive. According to his own testimony at the inquest, he brought Mrs. Allen the morning papers less than an hour before she was found slain and then took her pet dog for a walk, as was his custom.

Bell Rang Steadily.

At 6:10 on the morning of the murder, nearly an hour before the usual rising time, the gong, rung by a push button at the bedside of Mrs. Allen, set up a clamor. Usually such a summons was answered by Campbell who had a station in a den opening off the bedroom. The bell continued to ring steadily, as if an impatient finger was pressing against the bedroom button.

James Larkin, a keeper, was at breakfast in the butler's pantry just around a bend in the corridor. He ran into the hall and met George Simpson, another negro house servant who had been across the corridor in another suite.

"The lady's ringing," said Larkin. "Why don't you answer?" "It ain't my bell," protested the negro. "Where's Campbell?"

There was no reply from the negro but Larkin's call and the continued ringing of the gong brought Henry Rogers, a night turnkey from his post on the lower floor.

"I smell smoke," Rogers said. "Get to the fire whistle."

The volunteer fire squad, at breakfast at the time, responded to the day evening.

alarm and found the charred body of Mrs. Allen after having broken down the door leading to her apartments.

Had it not been for a freak of the flames, the whole building might have burned out and all evidence of the crime destroyed, it was established at the inquest. The continued ringing of the bell operated by the push button in Mrs. Allen's apartment was begun automatically when the wooden covering was burned off and the wires short-circuited.

Fire Caused Death.

Dr. V. T. Benson, former prison physician and an old friend of Mrs. Allen, examined the body and stated that the wound in her head had not caused her death. It was the fire, he said, that killed her. The murderer, the physician thought, had poured alcohol upon the bedding after he had attacked Mrs. Allen, then touched a match to the sheets. An empty jug that smelled of wood alcohol was discovered near the bed.

It was at first announced that robbery was not the motive for the crime but several valuable articles of jewelry were found to be missing. Several days later these were found hidden in a pillow slip in an adjoining room. At the time of Campbell's arrest only these two facts were absolutely established:

1. The murder was the work of some one inside the penitentiary.

2. It was the act of one of ten individuals, because there were but ten men who could have reached Mrs. Allen's bedchamber.

Warden Allen was absent at the time of the murder. He had left the prison the previous night for a ten-day trip to West Baden, Ind., at the suggestion of his physician. Mrs. Allen, disappointed by her dressmaker at the last minute, did not accompany him.

Four days after the murder a coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that the victim came to her death by a blow inflicted "by some person unknown to the jury," but recommended that Campbell be held for the grand jury. The negro was removed from the prison to a cell in the Will county jail after demonstrations on the part of the convicts prior to the warden's return, when a lynching was feared. Campbell steadfastly clung to his story, protesting his innocence and repeated efforts on the part of the authorities failed to shake it in the main.

OFFICE WILL MOVE.

On the first of the month the Dixon office of the Singer Sewing Machine company will be moved from the Opera House block to 112 Hennepin Ave., into the room formerly occupied by the tin shop of R. J. Slothower & Son.

REPORT OF BOARD PROVES F-4 A SEIVE

posts in the flooded forward compartment.

All members of the ship's company are absolved from blame in this tribute.

"From the facts established, we find that the accident resulting in disaster to the U. S. S. submarine F-4 on March 25, 1915, was not due to carelessness, negligence or inefficiency on the part of the officers or men of the vessel and that, furthermore, the personnel remained at their respective stations until all effective means employed to avert the disaster impending had failed and thereafter sought refuge."

Cause of Disaster.

After a review of all the facts established in the investigation the board states its conception of the disaster as follows:

"The primary cause of the disaster was the corroded condition of the lead lining of the battery tank and, in consequence of certain rivets in the port wall of the forward battery steel tank;

"The secondary causes were:

"(a) The poor diving qualities of the vessel; and (b) the consequent failure of the vessel promptly to respond to measures taken to bring her to the surface.

"Unknown to the commanding officer, the vessel acquired some negative buoyancy forward of the center of gravity, through the leaky rivets in the port wall of the forward battery steel tank.

"Water accumulated in the forward battery lead lined tank and through corroded slop tanks, overflowed into the battery cells—in contact with sulphuric acid in the cells generating chlorine gas.

"The vessel developed a strong tendency to dive.

"Upon these intimations of danger there followed:

"Up-rudder, but, due to the poor diving qualities of the vessel, aggravated by the additional quantity of water taken in through the port wall of the forward battery tank, vessel did not respond but, in fact, continued to descend, and downward momentum gained before propellers were stopped.

Reached Crushing Depth.

"Automatic blow was tripped and blow valve on auxiliary tank opened.

"In the endeavor to check the downward momentum maneuvering with propellers probably took place.

"The appreciable length of time requisite for air to build up in ballast tanks for the expulsion of sufficient water resulted in vessel reaching a crushing depth.

"Seams of the vessel began opening, and—probably through open torpedo tubes and seams—water entered the vessel. A condition of positive buoyancy was never attained.

"There followed actual disaster.

"Vessel began filling with water.

"Personnel abandoned stations and many sought refuge in the engine room, closing its door.

"Under great pressure, engine room bulkhead failed suddenly, leaving 'Vessel on bottom, completely flooded."

Detailed Findings.

From its examination of the valves of the automatic device which was set to expel water from the vessel's ballast tanks at a depth of 100 feet as required by departmental regulations, the board found that the accident which started the F-4 on the downward plunge had occurred before the 100 foot mark was reached. The most effective procedure for sending the boat to the surface was immediately carried out, diving rudders were set to send her upward, valves opened to empty the forward ballast tanks, and the electric motors started to drive her upward, all without avail it was then some members of the crew rushed into the engine room compartment and the door of the bulk head was closed. Fifteen bodies were found there and from this fact and the position of valves and rudders the board concluded that:

"Some member or members of the personnel were alive and capable of action for at least a short time after the occurrence which led to the disaster."

The board locates the primary cause of the disaster forward of the engine room, bulkhead. In this connection it says:

Acid Worked On Lead.

"Slop tanks and lead lining of battery steel tanks found corroded and therefore this corrosion resulted from the chemical action of sulphuric acid upon impurities in the lead.

"Battery steel tanks in general found in excellent condition and therefore,

"The corrosion of certain rivets and areas occurred prior to March 25, 1915, the date of the disaster.

"Valves and rudders found operated; switches found thrown; engine room door intentionally closed; and, therefore,

"The personnel were not asphyxiated before the vessel, under normal conditions, could have been brought to the surface.

"Corroded rivet in port wall of forward battery steel tank, in wake of frame No. 51, found to leak slightly even under a small head of water—not more than a foot—to which this portion of tank could be subjected in dock and, therefore,

"On the dive of March 25, 1915, this corroded rivet leaked considerably;

"Due to inevitable short-circuit or heavy ground, caused by flooding of cells through slop tanks, in the presence of chlorine and free hydrogen gas, in the presence of free hydrogen alone, if in sufficient quantity) electric arcs struck, and, therefore,

"An explosion occurred.

"A battery fire of limited extent occurred in the forward battery positive cell; but, nevertheless, this battery fire was not the primary cause of the disaster.

"Leak found in port wall of forward battery steel tank; probable leaks around certain other corrugated rivets in both battery tanks; probable leak through open torpedo tubes, no positive evidence found as to where leakage occurred; and, therefore,

"The vessel began to leak through open seams when, or before, the 300 foot depth was reached; and at such a rate that the weight of water coming in was greater than the weight of water being expelled from the ballast tanks; and, therefore,

"Slop tanks found corroded; suction pipe leading to bottom of forward battery lead lined tank found plugged with marine glue, and, therefore, these conditions were contributory to the disaster."

The report continues:

"No evidence found that the F-4 had poor diving qualities prior to her docking in February, 1915, when experimental propellers were fitted—the only known alteration made, and, therefore,

"The experimental propellers so substituted probably so affected the influence of the after diving rudders as to make it difficult for the diving rudder man to control the vessel and, furthermore,

"The poor diving qualities consequent upon this change of propellers were the secondary cause of the disaster.

"Air valves found open on forward, main, middle main, auxiliary, and after main ballast tanks, and, therefore:

"In the endeavor to check the vessel's downward momentum, the interval of time requisite for the expulsion of sufficient quantities of water permitted the vessel to reach crushing depths."

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight the Princess will show a two reel American feature entitled, "Let There Be Light," with Charles Newton and Helene Rosson in leading roles. This is an interesting drama in which a young girl marries an old inventor and finds happiness and love. Very interesting details of a great invention for making light is shown throughout the picture and the invention leads to the climax of the story. The other pictures are a Falstaff comedy entitled "Dicky's Deon Dauchound" with Francis Keyes and Wm. Carroll in the leading roles, a story of an unusually practical joke, and a fine Keystone comedy will also be shown.

FAMILY THEATRE.

Victor Moore will appear in a picture of the funniest society comedy ever written, "Snobs" at the Family theatre tonight. Victor Moore is one of the most distinguished comedy stars in America and his name is associated with Geo. M. Cohan's most important productions, making his melodramatic debut in this offering, which also has the distinction of having been offered at the strand theatre, New York, for the first anniversary week of that famous institution. The play on which the photodrama is founded is commonly regarded as the most laughable satire ever produced on Broadway, where it ran an entire season and did much to make the fame of its author, George Bronson-Howard.

In "Snobs" Victor Moore has the convulsively laughable role of a milkman of the most ordinary variety who suddenly inherits the title and vast wealth of an English duke. This milkman, though his instincts are perfectly good, has something of a natural taste for the "high spots" of life and immediately upon getting an advance installment of his inheritance proceeds to purchase most extreme garments, the longest cigars and all the other equipment necessary in his eyes for a noble multimillionaire. Before long, however, the duke discovers that the people who pretend to be most impressed by him are really ridiculing him behind his back and endeavors to renounce both title and money. However, a genuine, whole-hearted girl who has not been spoiled by society, comes to his rescue. This brings the romantic element into the story as the solution of all the duke's difficulties.

In connection with the above picture four excellent acts of vaudeville will be given.

CONTESTED DIVORCE SUIT SET FOR NOV. 3

ADAMS VS. ADAMS CASE WILL BE HEARD—THOMPSON PAROLED

Earl Thompson, who was found guilty of larceny in the Circuit court this morning, appeared in court this morning with his attorney, G. H. Gehant and the latter petitioned the court to release the defendant on probation inasmuch as it was his first offense, and the petition was granted by the court. Thompson was found guilty with Robert Jones of having stolen lumber from tow of the local yards for use in building a small house on the island below the Illinois Central railroad bridge.

Arguments were heard for a new trial in the case of H. E. Van Petten against Elmer H. Hess, the suit having been brought for money, plaintiff alleges was due him after the settlement of partnership affairs. The motion was overruled and judgment was rendered on the verdict in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff for the costs of the suit. An appeal was asked to the Appellate court which was allowed on the plaintiff filing bond in the sum of $100 within 40 days.

A motion for a new trial was also heard in the case of Ben McWilliams against Aaron Eberle. This was a suit brought to collect on a horse bought by the plaintiff from the defendant which died a short time after the deal was completed. The jury found issues in favor of the defendant. The court has not yet passed on the motion.

A hearing in the contested divorce proceedings, brought by Minnie M. Adams, has been set for Wednesday, Nov. 3. The defendant threatens to file a cross bill to the charges made in the petition as led by the plaintiff.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 28.—Political seers are again surprised by the Illinois supreme court. That tribunal adjourned without handing down a decision in the John B. Fergus case, in which the salaries of state employees are tied up. Chief Justice Farmer made the announcement.

"In what is known as the Fergus case the court will make no announcement of its decision at this time," said the chief justice. "It will prepare an opinion as soon as possible in vacation. In view of the various angles involved, it would be unwise to make an announcement at this time."

FUGITIVE 19 YEARS, NOT EVEN ACCUSED

Man Gives Himself Up to Find He's Not Wanted.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 28.—Tired of trying to evade government officials, who, he believed, had been seeking him for the last nineteen years Joseph D. Cunningham, fifty years old, of Alexandria, Ind., gave himself up at the sheriff's office in Hammond with the explanation that he had stolen $500 from the postoffice of Alexandria, where he was employed as general delivery clerk. His brother, the Rev. William Cunningham, was postmaster at the time.

After learning from the authorities at Washington that Cunningham was not wanted as a law breaker or fugitive, the sheriff got into communication with Cunningham's brother at Alexandria. The brother reported over the long distance telephone that his brother's shortage was squared by him immediately after the disappearance.

Joseph D. Cunningham had lived in a groundless fear, having spent most of his time in Chicago and New York. He was penniless. His brother has taken him back to Alexandria.

JOHNSON'S BILLS DEFEATED

California Gives 20,000 Majority Against Nonpartisan Measures.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Returns from the general election indicate that the proposition to make all state offices nonpartisan has been defeated by a majority of about 20,000. Nine constitutional amendments met a similar fate from an apathetic electorate, the vote having been remarkably light.

The defeat of the nonpartisan measures against which the referendum was invoked after they had been passed by the legislature last spring, caused surprise. They were the principal measures advocated by Governor Hiram W. Johnson at the legislative session, and in their support he conducted a vigorous campaign.

MAN IS BLAMED, NOT WOMAN

Iowa Justice Sends Back Suit of Female vs. Female.

Des Moines, Oct. 28.—The female of the species is not deadlier than the male, in the opinion of the supreme court of Iowa in an opinion reversing the superior court of Grinnell, wherein Mrs. Sophia Porter was awarded $10,000 damages against Mrs. Grace Hershman for alleged alienation of her husband's affections.

The supreme court thinks that in such cases the woman is the less to blame and that the man is generally the aggressor. The case is set back for retrial.

BRITAIN WILL AVENGE DEATHS

Anna Benzel, Belgian Woman, Has Been Sentenced to Death—Pope Again Asks Mercy—Berlin Dispatch Says Minister Whitlock Denies Published Report Regarding German Premise.

London, Oct. 28.—From all Germans responsible for maltreatment of war prisoners due reparation will be exacted by the British, Under Foreign Secretary Robert Cecil assured the house of commons, repeating a promise given by Premier Asquith May 5. Cecil was answering a question concerning the course the government will pursue in connection with the Edith Cavell case.

"The premier's pledge," he said, "now applies with double force in view of the savage murder, under legal form, of a noble woman." It will make no difference to the British, he added, how high the position of the guilty persons.

Claim Whitlock Denial.

Berlin, Oct. 28.—The Overseas News Agency gave out a statement regarding the case of Miss Edith Cavell, saying "the United States minister in Brussels (Brand Whitlock) states the British publications are untrue so far as he is concerned."

"The British government," says the statement, "published the correspondence between the American legation in Brussels and the German authorities there in the Cavell case. The principal facts are inaccurately represented, especially the statement making it appear as if the German authorities by vain promises had put off the minister in order to conceal the sentence."

"The German authorities never gave such a promise, this being admitted by the United States minister in Brussels, who further states he was most painfully affected by the publications and will immediately inform the United States government."

Retribution That Was Swift.

Cy Perkins and Jim Brady were from the country, the deep country, and they were unschooled in the crafty ways of swell cafes. They had spent the day taking in the sights of the state fair just outside the big city, and they had invaded the districts notable for electric lights, high prices and poor service.

After holding a caucus on a street corner, they decided to go into one of the high-class restaurants and have dinner. After delaying them for the proper length of time a waiter approached them and handed them a menu. Incidentally, he piled up in front of them the usual imposing array of cut glass and silver.

"I reckon we might as well have a square meal," said Jim Brady.

Cy Perkins assented, and they ordered for dinner practically everything on the menu from soup to nuts. At the conclusion of the meal, Jim Brady produced a silver dollar, waved his hand in a lordly manner toward the waiter, and said:

"Take the damage out of this, and keep the change."

The waiter came as near looking embarrassed as any city waiter could, and ventured to remark that the bill was more than a dollar. He presented it in writing. It amounted to nine dollars and sixty cents. Jim, after taking one angry glare at the total, produced the ten-dollar note and stalked out of the restaurant ahead of Cy.

On the sidewalk Jim, after indulging in a profane duel with nobody, uttered this prophecy:

"Cy, some day Heaven will punish those men for that."

"Jim," said Cy reverently, "Heaven has punished them already. I've got fifteen dollars' worth of silver spoons in my pocket."—The Popular Magazine.

Fired on Suspicion.

A husky young Irishman secured his first great freight handling contract after serving some years as one of the "gang."

Promptly at 7 o'clock that morning he called 500 of the burly "dock wall-lopers" to order and shouted:

"Now, yez are all to worruk for me, and I want every one of yez to understand right now that I kin lick any man in the gang."

Four hundred and ninety-nine swallowed the challenge, but one large giant built warrior moved uneasily, and, stepping from the line, he said: "You can't lick me, Mike Hennessy."

"Oh, I can't, can't I?" yelled Hennessy.

"No, you can't," was the determined answer.

"Well, then go to the office an' get your money," said Hennessy. "I'll have no man in me gang that I can't lick."

"I'm too poor."

"Well, some quiet, retired country."

"I'm too poor."

"We must get out of the city. It isn't respectable to stay in."

"I'm very sorry. I suppose I might, in a pinch, get you and the girls admitted for the summer to some rural poorhouse, but the trouble is I'm too poor to pay the care fare."

James' Economy.

"Papa," asked James, "wouldn't you be glad if I saved a dollar for you?"

"Certainly, my son," said papa, so delighted at this evidence of budding business ability that he handed the youth a dime.

"Well, I saved it all right," said James, disappearing. "You said if I brought a good report from my teacher you would give me a dollar, but I didn't."

German Conspirator's Story Involves German Officials.

Plotter Makes New Admissions—Declares He Unfolded Plans to German Secret Service Head—Given Money and Told "You Know What to Do."

New York, Oct. 28.—The designs of the German secret service to blow up munition carrying ships, to dynamite ammunition plants and to wreck railroads that transport the shrews of war for the allies, were revealed by Robert Fay, former lieutenant of the 15th Prussian infantry and wearer of the Iron Cross. He made what is practically a confession to Chief Flynn of the secret service. The recital given by the officer sets forth the following dramatic situation:

Meets Secret Service Head.

Fay in April last was sent to the head of the German secret service in the Wilhelmstrasse, Berlin. He had already proved himself a man of exceptional ability in handling bombs, in setting mines that could be ignited without the use of electric wires that invariably work badly in damp weather. He had worked on mines that had proved of help to Germany in the war and had proved successful in capturing trenches from the French.

When Fay reached the presence of Chief Jonnerson of the secret service, he explained briefly his plan for coming to this country and manufacturing mines that, attached to the rudder posts of ships would hamper the shipment of artillery ammunition from this country to the allies. Jonnerson, according to Fay's own statement, picked up a letter with a number of clippings from American newspapers, handed them to Fay with the succinct command: "Read those carefully."

Fay "Read Between Lines."

The letter was from Dr. Herbert Kienle, now locked up in the Toms with Fay, to his father in Germany. It, together with clippings, told of the manner in which war munitions were being supplied from this country to the allies. When he had finished reading the letters, Chief Jonnerson, Fay now says, looked up at him sharply and asked:

"Now you understand thoroughly, don't you?"

Fay nodded his head and replied:

"I do."

"All right then," the Chief is quoted as having said, "Here is $4,000. Arrangements will be made to see that you get more money as you need it."

Lieutenant Fay does not say in so many words that he was ordered to blow up munition plants and to wreck railroads, but he told the story to Chief Flynn and other secret service men in a quiet, significant tone of voice, adding:

"You can read between the lines."

The story of the young lieutenant taken in connection with statements from other sources that he told Paul Seib or Karl P. Applegate that he planned to blow up a chemical plant and also that he offered $500,000 bribe for any Russian ship carrying copper that strayed near a German cruiser are taken as proof that Fay had a much broader field of work than he had even before hinted at.

And Fay admitted that he was "ready to pay Seib or anybody else who could turn the trick for me $500,000 by delivering a ship of copper within the reach of German warships."

Other Arrests Expected.

On the basis of stories told by Fay and information gathered from Fay's papers other arrests are expected.

That much was asserted by Snowden H. Marshall, the United States attorney. The clue is leading to the men who have been handling German money in this country, to the men who have expended many millions of dollars here in propaganda, passport frauds and other lines.

GERMANS OPEN WAY TO TURKEY

Bulgarians and Teutonic Allies Effect Junction.

LONDON GLOOMY AT REPORT

Direct Communication With Constantinople Secured—Prime Purpose of Balkan Drive Assured—Austro-Germans Continue Advance, Defeating Serbs—Allies Have 58,000 at Saloniki.

London, Oct. 28.—Junction effected between the Austro-German and the Bulgarian invaders in the northeast corner of Serbia has opened a road for the Teutonic troops to Constantinople. This gain is admitted here to be the most important development of the Kaiser's campaign in the Balkans. It was primarily to open such a line for the direct transport of munitions and reinforcements to Turkey that the campaign against Serbia was begun.

"We have taken Dobron and Neresnica and east of Orsova we have captured twelve heavy cannon," announces the Berlin war office. Dobron is just east of the Austro-Serbian frontier town of Vitegrad. Neresnica is eighteen miles south of the Danube and thirty miles east of the Morava River. It is in the Pek River valley.

The country to the east of Orsova, a Hungarian Danube River town, is in the extreme northeast of Serbia, where the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians have formed a junction.

When Fay reached the presence of Chief Jonnerson of the secret service, he explained briefly his plan for coming to this country and manufacturing mines that, attached to the rudder posts of ships would hamper the shipment of artillery ammunition from this country to the allies. ## DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER! THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look at tongue! If coated, clean it, the stomach, liver and bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative" and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Sals if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Sals; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous sals is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in uric acid so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Sals is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR!

EXPERIENCE OF ILLINOIS FOLKS.

Paris, Ill.—"I found myself run down and weak from the effects of La Grippe. I needed a reliable building-up medicine and found it in 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I saw it advertised and used two bottles. It helped me when doctor's medicines failed. I found it increased my strength and appetite and built me up in every way. To help some other person similarly placed, I am glad to have you publish this statement."—Mrs. Wm. W. CLARK, 509 Prairie St., Peoria, Ill.

Good blood means good health; good health means strong men and women, full of vigor and ambition, with minds alert and muscles ever willing. This vegetable remedy, to a great extent, puts the liver into activity—oils the machinery of the human system so that those who spend their working hours at the desk, behind the counter, or in the home are rejuvenated into vigorous health. Has brought relief to many thousands every year for nearly 50 years. It can relieve you and doubtless restore you to your former health and vigor. Give it a trial. Sold by medicine dealers or send 50 cents for trial box of tablets.—Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

It will clear the skin; eczema, pimples, rash, blotches will dry up and disappear; boils, carbuncles and other evidences of tainted blood will pass away, never to appear again. Write Dr. Pierce for free confidential medical advice.

We can only mention a few of the chapters here: The Mechanism of Life, History of Marriage, Advice for Mother and Baby, Nervous Troubles, Sex, Hygiene, Anatomy, Physiology, Medicine, etc.

Special Offer—For a limited time we will send one copy for three dimes to pay cost of wrapping and mailing, to any reader of this paper. Address 665 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Look younger! Try Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur and nobody will know.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

WIFE AIDS ANTHRAX VICTIM

Applies Antiseptic Treatment at 15-Minute Intervals.

Benbow City, Ill., Oct. 28.—Dr. J. C. Helper, who, a month ago, was stricken with anthrax, has been pronounced completely cured by his attending physician. Dr. Helper's wife was largely instrumental in bringing about his cure. Throughout the greater part of his illness she applied, at fifteen-minute intervals, an antiseptic treatment to a wound on the physician's neck, which had been caused by the disease. Dr. Helper believes he contracted the disease from a mosquito bite. For a week both he and the physician in charge of the case held faint hope for his recovery. The only permanent ill effect left by the disease is a three-inch scar on Dr. Helper's neck.

A BIT OF ADVICE

FIRST—DON'T DELAY. SECOND—DON'T EXPERIMENT.

If you suffer from backache, headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Dixon residents desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of a Dixon citizen who has used them and willingly testifies to their worth?

Mrs. J. Caritey, 511 Spruce street, Dixon, says: "Some few years ago I suffered from a severe attack of kidney trouble. My back was so sore that I couldn't walk erect and mornings it was hard for me to get out of bed. It was next to impossible for me to stoop over. I had tried various medicines, but they had no benefit and had about given up hope of getting better. A friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so I got some at Leake Bros. Co.'s drug store. By the time I had finished two boxes I was able to sit up in bed and my back felt stronger. I used eight boxes and had no more trouble until I injured my back a short time ago. Doan's Kidney Pills then gave me immediate relief."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Caritey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

JURY IN CASE AGAINST ESTATE
EXCUSED UNTIL LATE THIS AFTERNOON.

A hearing on a contested claim filed by Mrs. Mary Cupp against the estate of Catherine Cupp, deceased, was taken up in county court Wednesday afternoon. She has filed a claim against the estate of $4 per week for five years for service in caring for the late Catherine Cupp. A jury was empanelled yesterday afternoon to hear the testimony and many witnesses were called. When adjournment of court was taken in the afternoon all the plaintiff's witnesses had not been examined and more were to be put on the stand this morning. Attorney Harry Edwards and E. E. Wingert represent Uriah Cupp, the administrator, while Attorney R. H. Scott is for the plaintiff. The attorneys held a conference this morning and the jury was excused until 4 o'clock this afternoon. There is some possibility of a settlement being effected between the interested parties.

Secretary Daniels Orders Machine to Carry 6,000 Pounds.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Secretary Daniels ordered the immediate construction of the world's greatest aeroplane at the Washington navy yard. The record breaking air fighter will be one of a fleet designed to carry and discharge the secret explosive bombs recently tested at Pensacola.

Experts in the navy department say such an air fleet as proposed will be able to destroy any great city it could reach. Bombs could be dropped on battleships 150 miles at sea. The carrying capacity will be not less than 6,000 pounds.
